Committee Decides to Have a Square On McDonough Street.

IS ON WAY TO COLORADO

Bazaar is Well Attended—Arbitrators to Meet This Afternoon.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

A called meeting of the Street Committee was held last night to consider and act upon the recommendations of the Second Ward delegation made by the latter in its last meeting. The question is of great interest as touching upon the growing desire of the ward delegations to pave the streets in their respective districts. The recommendation was presented by Mr. Nunnally in the name of the delegation, asking for an appropriation to cover the expense of paving McDonough street between 12th and 13th streets. The recommendation was adopted, except that the north side shall not be paved until further consideration. The action in regard to the north side was taken on account of the petition of the lot owners, asking that a cutting be put down on that street, and saying that the petitioners would place there a granite sidewalk six feet wide. The petition was rejected, as the Street Committee desires sidewalks only of a wider extension. It was decided, upon the request of Mr. Nunnally, that the material of the paving should be left to the delegation from that ward.

Mr. Ferguson, of the Fourth Ward, petitioned for a brick pavement and wood cutting on Coward Avenue from Ferry Street to the Semmes street bridge. The petition was granted.

Bazaar Well Attended.

The bazaar given by the ladies of the Stockton Street Baptist Church was again well attended last night, and the program was much enjoyed. The bazaar is doing a thriving business, and from them large proceeds are expected by Saturday afternoon, which is yet not quite completed. It will include selections from the railroad Y. M. C. A. Quartette, of Richmond. This quartette consists of Messrs. B. C. Crabtree, Baker and Phillips. There will also be many other attractive features on the program for Saturday night, and all the articles left over will be put up at auction and sold. There are many things of value lying at the booths, and it is expected that most of them will be disposed of before that time.

W. E. Smith Leaves.

Mr. Walter Smith, who has for a long time been station man at the Fire Department, left for Colorado yesterday afternoon. He hopes that the new climate of the Western State will prevent the further spread of the malady which has been recently afflicting his lungs. Before he left, he was given $100 and his railroad ticket by Mr. Clarence Vaden, who has been kind enough to receive the contributions which were given that Mr. Smith's trip might be possible. Mr. Smith left Manchester with the kindest assurances and best wishes of his friends, who came to see him to his help in the hour of his need, and, in his turn, assured them all of his deepest gratitude and recognition of their timely aid.

Mr. Smith will arrive in Denver on Saturday. He has many letters of introduction to the city officials of Denver from Mayor Maurice and Chief Crooks and other friends.

Arbitrators to Meet.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock will be held a called meeting of the arbitrators, Messrs. Augustine Royall and W. T. Davidson, to determine the value of a strip of land belonging to Mrs. Octavia Purks lying on the west side of Coward Avenue. This property has been condemned by the city for the purpose of straightening the line of the street.

WILSON SAID TO BE A BIGAMIST

not unattractive appearance, was seen in his cell at the city jail last night. In answer to questions, he said that he knew Mr. Woodward, of Roanoke, the man who makes the complaint of forgery against him, and he also said he had traveled with E. J. Summers, and that he cashed a draft for Summers and gave this draft to Mr. Woodward, the proprietor of the hotel in Roanoke.

"I can very easily explain all of that," said the prisoner to a Times-Dispatch reporter.

"It is said by the special agent of the paint company of Detroit, for whom you once worked, that you are a bigamist. Is this so?" asked the reporter.

"No, it is not," answered Wilson.

"Have you been married before?"

"Yes, I am a widower."

"Any children living?"

"My former wife and one child are living now. I told my wife here about a few nights before we were married. She knows I was married before."

The man in the cell said that the name of the special agent of the Detroit paint house was the same as his—Wilson. He admitted having been discharged from the service of this company, and said that he would have gone to work yesterday with the Cable Piano Company, had he not been arrested the night before by Captain Tomlinson and Detective Wrenn. In Police Court yesterday his case was continued until to-day.

Alleged Forger.

The following telegram from Roanoke, gives an account of the charge that Wilson will have to face:

J. H. Wilson, arrested in Richmond to-day, is charged with passing a forged draft for $50 on E. J. Summers, president of the St. James Hotel. The draft was from the Bank of Marion, this State, on the Hanover National Bank of New York, payable to E. J. Summers. Mr. Woodward cashed it in September but it was not returned. While Wilson's initials were J. H., he endorsed the draft G. H.

The draft was purchased from the bank of Marion by Mr. J. R. McClure and mailed to E. J. Summers, who is supposed to have been traveling with Wilson. It never reached Wilson and it is supposed it was purloined from the letter. It next turned up when it was presented to Mr. Woodward by Wilson. Mr. Woodward says Wilson had traveled for a Detroit paint and oil house, but was discharged.

The chief salesman who was here to-day stated that he had heard a Lynchburg man who had married a girl in Richmond and that if this were true the man was a bleamit too, as he has a wife and two children in Buffalo.

Mr. Woodward says he had frequently cashed drafts for Wilson and had no suspicion that it was not all right. Chief Davis will go to Richmond after Wilson to-night.

FILIPINO SENORITAS AS TELEPHONE GIRLS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MANILA, November 8.—Commissioner Smith, Secretary of Public Instruction, is a firm believer in the future of the Filipino senorita as a telephone operator and hello girl. He has sent instructions to David P. Barrows, General Superintendent of Education, to devise some plan whereby instruction may be given to a certain number of Filipino girls in the art, the classes being most likely held in the telephone section of the trade school. There is a possibility that the telephone system will be taken out of consular hands and made a part of the work of the Bureau of Posts, and it is thought that female operators can be used with advantage.

It is quite possible that Filipino girls will be trained for service with the telephone company, which may also take over the telephone lines eventually.

COLOR GUARDS ARE MUSTERED OUT

(By Associated Press.)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., November 8.—Governor W. D. Jelks, through Adjutant General W. W. Brandon to-day ordered that the military organization known as the Capital City Guards, Company A, negro troops, be mustered out of service as early as practicable. The company was declared to be "an ineffective organization," and it will be mustered out "for the good of the service."

Until 1898 there was a battalion of negro troops in Alabama. They declined to enlist in the Spanish-American War, and all but the company in Montgomery were dropped from the rolls.

BIG PREMIUMS OF POOR INSURED

Industrial Insurance Considerably More Expensive Than Ordinary Life.

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT

Hegeman Says $1,000 Ordinary Costs $16.55 Annually, and $984 Industrial, $31.20.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, November 8.—In the testimony of John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, before the insurance investigating committee, upon the resumption of the insurance investigation to-day, it was brought out that industrial insurance was considerably more expensive than other forms of life insurance, and Mr. Hegeman, after classing industrial insurance as retail and the ordinary life as wholesale, illustrated the fact by an example, in which, for a stated age, it was shown that for a $1,000 policy of ordinary life, the Metropolitan charged $16.55 annually, while for $984, the nearest amount for the stated age under the industrial plan, $31.20 was charged.

Mr. Hegeman was on the stand the greater part of the afternoon, and his testimony was along the line of the testimony of the company's increase in business.

At the morning session Emory McClintock, actuary of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, who has been examined in part at previous sessions, was called, and continued his testimony on technical insurance.

Mr. McClintock said that in 1904 the old policyholders of the Mutual Life paid $4,062,665 of the expenses incurred in securing new business. He said that the estimated cost of this new business in 1904 was $9,550,753, and that the amount toward this expense was only $3,188,680.

The old policyholders paid the balance of the expense, he said.

(By Associated Press.)

VALDOSTA, Ga., November 8.—Clyde Jordan and Peter Howell, well known white men from near Pelham, were tried before United States Commissioner Powell to-day on a charge of white-capping a witness who was to appear in the Federal Court here against several illicit distillers in that section.

The victim was a man named W. P. Crosby, who claims that these two men and three others met him on the roadside last Saturday, all of them masked, and gave him a flogging and told him that they would put an end to him if he did not leave the country at once.

He says they charged him with furnishing evidence in "moonshine" cases. The bonds of Jordan and Howell were fixed at $500 each. Deputy United States Marshal Godwin will try to bring the others to face the courts.

Funeral, Little Margaret; our loss is thy gain.

Two more little eyes are closed to open above.

Two more little feet have reached the shining shore.

Two more little ears are deaf—Are deaf to sounds of mirth; Two more little lips will list No more on earth.

Two more little hands close—Folded on the breast; One more little form Gently laid to rest.

Those eyes of softest brown Are open now above; On her brow she wears a crown With Jesus, Whom she loves.

Those two little feet now run at God's command; With saints and angels meet, with throngs of children stand.

Those two little arms now list to songs above; Those two little lips sing now redeeming love.

Those two little hands now pluck immortal flowers; That dear little form rests now in heavenly bowers.

Within the shepherd's arms she is safe unfolded now; Enrobed in purest white and a crown upon her brow.
